WANTS COUNTY TO WIN

Superintendent Urges All Schools to Be Represented at the Spelling and Penmanship Contest.

The county spelling and penmanship contest is to be held in the office of Mrs. Minnette Hedges, county superintendent, April 21, according to an announcement made Friday. The contest starts at 10 o'clock and will be conducted under the same rules as the state contests which are held May 12 at Oklahoma city.

Each school in Tulsa county is entitled to a representative in each contest and an effort is being made by Mrs. Hedges to have every school in the county represented. A gold medal for first place and a silver medal for second place is awarded the winner of each contest, who is also entitled to enter the state contests. Each county in the state is entitled to one representative in the state contest, which is held the same day that the county superintendents meet in the capital city.

In the state spelling contest 100 words are given from the state text. The penmanship contest is conducted in three divisions—high schools, the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades in schools of cities more than three thousand, and the same grades in schools of less than three thousand population. Prizes are $50 and $25 for first and second places in each division.

Truth Meet at Coalgate.

ATOKA, April 7.—William Gill, secretary of the Stroud-Atoka division of the Ozark Trail association, has announced a meeting of the association to be held at Coalgate Thursday, April 13, at 1 o'clock. At this meeting arrangements will be made for the marking of the highway and the erection of concrete pyramids.

Would Tax Poodle Dogs.

NEW YORK, April 7.—"I would put a tax of $100 on every poodle dog which society women carry around in the place of children and turn the money over to poor mothers who are struggling to rear their children," declared Rev. Dr. J. Frank Norris, "the Texas tornado," in a sermon at the Calvary Baptist church, where he is holding nightly revival services.

Might Catch Freckles.

Kathleen and Josephine, both aged 6 years, were brown friends, as had been their families for generations back. So the Jones' were in a quandary to know the trouble with Kathleen when she came home from school several days crying, and saying: "I won't sit with Josephine!"

"Why, has Josephine made you mad?"

"No."

"Well, what's the matter, then?"

"Cause she's got freckles, and I am afraid I will catch them."

Sounding Last Call for Those Who Gave Up Lives in France

Memorial service at Brooklyn army base for the last of the bodies of World war veterans brought from France.

Hundreds of officials of army and civil life took part in the memorial services held in Brooklyn at the army base for the last shipment of bodies of World war veterans brought back from France. The coffins were buried beneath floral tributes and thousands of persons gathered about the place and swept as the touching and impressive rites were carried out.

ABSURDITIES OF JOKE LAWMAKERS

Unusually Heavy Crop of "Reform" Cranks Measures

NEW YORK, April 7.—The Kentucky legislator who proposed that moonshiners be compelled by law to equip their "still" with whistles that could be heard for two miles has no monopoly of the unusual in proposed legislation for the nation who sit in legislative halls of state capitals are prone to eccentric, noisy and odd.

Some odd bills have cropped up in the state legislative sessions now drawing to a close. For example there is the bill introduced in the New York state assembly making hypocrisy a misdemeanor and defining it as "the act of a person who for pay, gift or other valuable thing publicly advocates and supports any legislative measure restraining free exercise of personal liberty or the act of any person who solicits funds for such support."

The measure is aimed at "reform" organization workers. The Massachusetts legislature had before it in this year's session a bill making church-going compulsory for every resident of the state who was physically or mentally capable of attending church.

Another measure proposed in Massachusetts provided that every candidate for public office must be examined by a justice of the superior court to determine whether he is qualified to hold office to which he aspires.

A bill in the Massachusetts legislature authorized the appointment of a special legislative committee to make an official Fourth of July visit to the Irish Free State at the expense of its members.

Some of the unusual legislation proposed is obviously aimed at what the authors regard as injustice. Housewives who do not share in joint control of the family income found a champion in Mrs. Margaret Laird, of Newark, N. J., who introduced a bill in the New Jersey legislature enabling married women to control the wages they earn in their own homes.

Another New Jersey measure would exempt nurses from jury duty.

A third would enable innocent persons to collect from the state $1 a day for each day of confinement in jail, provided they proved their innocence.

Jumps From Train Traveling 50 Miles an Hour—May Die.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 7.—Robert Hampton, 36, of Detroit, took a chance in a thousand today to escape serving a 10-year term in the federal penitentiary here, but lost.

On the last lap of his journey to prison, convicted of motor car thefts, he dove from a Pullman car window. The train was near Rushville, Mo., and was traveling at 50 miles an hour.

Hampton landed in the cinders beside the track. He was picked up and taken to the penitentiary hospital, where it was stated he would probably die of injuries.

One Hen Keeps Busy.

BUCHTEL, Ohio.—A good-beater—at least, in this part of the world—is the claim made by Jake Kirkendall for a 3-year-old Rhode Island Red hen.

Kirkendall claims this hen laid 21 eggs in December, 20 in January, 18 in February and 6 during the first seven days this month, after which date the hen started to "set."

His Brakes Didn't Work.

The new minister had asked Al Jones to lead in prayer. It was Al's first experience, but not wishing to disappoint his new pastor, he complied. Twenty minutes later found him still praying.

The congregation was becoming restless. Finally, from a deacon's pew where came a loud and devout "Amen."

Unbending his knees the supplicant exclaimed: "God bless you, deacon!" "That's the word I've been trying to think of ever since I started!"

AX MYSTERIES SOLVED, BELIEF

L. J. Tremblay, Father of Kansas Victims, Takes Poison and Dies

CONCORDIA, Kan., April 7.—Police believed today that with the suicide of L. J. Tremblay the mystery of the "ax fiend" who killed one person and injured four others at the Tremblay home Tuesday night was solved.

Tremblay, father of the family attacked by the ax, took his life by drinking poison this morning at the home of Joe Backlund, a neighbor residing 11 miles east of here.

It was the opinion of authorities that Tremblay had been of unsound mind.

He was found after the killing near the doorstep of his home, tied with baling wire, his feet slightly bound. His eldest son, Theodore, had been slain with the ax in the barn, which had been set on fire. The younger sons were found unconscious in the house, which also had been set on fire, suffering from horrible injuries inflicted with the ax. Two of the injured, it was said today, will probably die.

Tremblay, it was reported, grew extremely nervous last night after his finger prints had been taken. It had been ascertained that he owned a $4,000 mortgage on his farm and that his eldest son was insured for $5,000.

Several deposits of coal from which it is estimated 40,000,000 tons can be taken have been discovered in northern China.

HEARD SOME HOT ORATORY

Robertson's Attack Upon Owen Interested Tulsa Democrats.

Tulsa democrats who attended the state meeting at Oklahoma City Thursday, pronounced it one of the best-attended gatherings of its kind ever held in the state. They explained also it was the scene of some hot oratorical fireworks, especially when Governor Robertson denounced Gov. Owen, candidate for governor, for a letter he had made public, the governor announcing at that time that neither he nor any of his friends will support Owen in his race. The governor also defended his own administration.

Among the Tulsans who heard the governor's talk were E. Bue Guthrie, Frank M. Wooden, Bob Atkins, E. Fred Johnson, Charles W. Daboy, H. P. Dunn, John P. Logan, Harry Fair, Senator R. T. Davidson, Roy Garbett, J. M. Crotchfield and A. J. Ridd. The three last named are members of the incoming city administration.

Eight Convicts Will Be Taken to Prison

Eight inmates of the county jail, who were convicted and sentenced to terms in the state penitentiary at the last term of district court here, will be taken to McAlester by deputy sheriff Sunday. Others are G. L. Ballard, auto theft, 15 years; Earl Smith, burglary, seven years; Dan Mars, burglary, five years; Fred Thompson, burglary, three years, and Tom Bell, burglary, two years. Leonard Bagley, who was given one year on a conviction for larceny, will be taken to the Granite reformatory.
